Oil

Expressions in Oil with Diana Boyd of Sonora

Tried and true right brain methods have made this oil painting class fun and popular. Classes include instruction in painting from upside-down photos, right-side-up still lifes, and timed pieces, using a variety of grounds. Diana's style both on canvas and as an instructor is loose, expressive and full of spirit! Please have your own turp pot with lid and container for your brushes. $50 deposit holds your place in these popular classes!

Pastels—3rd Saturday with Tina

Saturday, October 18 • 10 am to 4 pm

Pastels with Tina Moore of Stockton

A pastel workshop to help you get the most out of the wonderful medium of pastels will be offered by award-winning artist/instructor Tina Moore. Tina is a Distinguished Pastellist with the Pastel Society of the West Coast and a Signature member of the Pastel Society of America, the Women Artists of the West and the Sierra Pastel Society. Learn to put life, depth, and drama in your pastel paintings. Both experienced pastel painters and those new to the medium will be able to make a beautiful painting with plenty of one-on-one instruction. Participants can make their own choices regarding subject matter. The principles apply whether you are painting a portrait, landscape, or anything else. Bring a photo to draw or still life to set up. Supply list available from Larry at Town Hall Arts, 785-2050, larry@townhallarts.com. Cost of class is $20, plus $2 classroom fee.

Saturday and Sunday, October 25, 26 • 9:30 am to 3 pm

with Judie Cain of Murphys

Students will work from live clothed models. Focus will be on process, stressing values and proportions. We will be doing simplified drawing layouts and studies of color values in figure representation and practice reproducing the flow, curves, and form of fabric.

Saturday: the morning will be basic drawing layouts and mixing a palette of skin tones. The afternoon will be spent painting the live model.

Sunday: Morning critique and discussion. The afternoon will be spent painting the second clothed model.

Students should have some experience in drawing or painting the human form and some basic painting skills. Cost is $75 for the two-day workshop, plus $10 model fee and $4 classroom fee.

Judie Cain has taught oil painting and color fundamentals and has had gallery representation in three western states as well as in her previous studio in Forest Meadows. She is known for her figure paintings in her "Kids on the Beach" series as well as her people and animal represented in landscapes and portraits. She has been a professional artist for over 25 years. Judie's works have been reproduced on home products and in prints and giclées. She has won numerous awards and is collected worldwide.
